Welsh Language Standards

Annual Report

2021-2022

Implementing the Welsh Language Standards in the Police & Crime Commissioner's Team

Introduction

In 2017 'Welsh Language Standards' were introduced in Wales and our Welsh Language Compliance notice was provided to us by the Welsh Language Commissioner. The Standards with which we must comply are outlined in the Police & Crime Commissioner's legal compliance notice, which can be accessed on our website.

Since the introduction of the Standards, we have wholeheartedly embraced the promotion of the Welsh language across our team and to the public. We have welcomed the Standards as a way to ensure that we can offer the best possible Welsh language service, and one which is equal to that which we provide in English.

This document provides an overview of the work that has taken place to comply with the Standards and promote Welsh language inclusivity during the financial year 2021-2022.

Internal Oversight

We continue to operate a Welsh Language Working Group, which is chaired by the Strategic Lead for Scrutiny, Assurance & Equality. This Group is responsible for ongoing monitoring and oversight of our compliance and progress in relation to Welsh language inclusivity. The group members act as 'Champions' for the Welsh language within their own portfolio areas and play a role in awareness-raising of the Standards across the team. The group feeds up to the full team meetings within the Commissioner's team to ensure that Welsh language issues are embedded in our governance structures.

As far as possible we work collaboratively with South Wales Police in promoting language inclusivity.

Embedding the Standards in 2021/22

This financial year has seen a gradual return to the office after the significant Covid-19 challenges of 2020-2021. This has resulted in the return of face-to-face meetings of the Welsh Language Group.

New staff members of the Police & Crime Commissioner continue to be provided with awareness sessions on the Welsh Language Standards and how they need to be implemented. All staff are also provided with a comprehensive Guidance document, developed by the working group, to support them with their individual Welsh language responsibilities. The guidance has been updated and disseminated to all staff to reflect staffing and procedural changes, as we do not want the document to simply sit on a shelf. It is made clear to staff that the document is of paramount importance and that all should be familiar with it.

All staff are given access to a range of Welsh language information and materials in order to provide a consistent service to the public. Since the Standards were implemented, practical steps have been taken to ensure we are best placed to provide a positive Welsh language service. Examples have included staff being able to access 'Siop Siarad' sessions which are facilitated by South Wales Police Welsh trainer and allow staff to practice and improve their Welsh Language skills. All fluent Welsh speakers have been provided with lanyards and badges to identify themselves as such. The Commissioner's Team is also frequently reminded of the opportunities available to them to upskill in the Welsh language and to improve in Welsh language confidence. All staff are supported to improve their Welsh language skills.

The internal working group continues to monitor the Standards' implementation as a matter of course.

Service Delivery Standards

We work to meet our 'Service Delivery' standards through a number of measures, including:

- A standard 'contact us' format on our documents to outline that correspondence is welcomed in Welsh and English.
- The provision of footnotes at the bottom of emails and letterheads to explain that we welcome correspondence in Welsh and English.
- Welsh speakers indicate their ability to speak Welsh on email footers.
- Email signatures, 'out of office' email messages and voicemails to main landline numbers are bilingual.
- All callers to the Commissioner's team main line are greeted with a bilingual greeting. They are then provided with assistance in the Welsh language until such a point as this is no longer possible due to lack of available Welsh speakers or the need to converse with a subject matter expert without Welsh language ability. All callers in Welsh are treated with courtesy and respect and we do all we can to provide a positive service.
- When we contact people for the first time and are not aware of their language preference, we ask them if they wish to communicate with us in Welsh. This applies unless contact has already been received in English from that person or their language preference is already known.
- A system to record the details of those that inform us they wish to communicate with us in Welsh.
- All public meetings, events and conferences, including those online, provide the opportunity of conversing in Welsh. Individuals are required to inform us of their wish to communicate in Welsh by a specified date in order that we can arrange simultaneous translation facilities appropriately.
- Standard use documents used within the team are bilingual.
- Tweets from the Commissioner's Twitter account (@commissionersw) are bilingual.
- Our policy for awarding grants takes account of the need to consider and promote the Welsh language in the awarding process.

Of note during 2021/22:

- The PCC office received 28 press enquiries in Welsh a number of which led to the Commissioner taking part in Welsh language interviews on Radio Cymru on topics including the naming of the Senedd and the Mayhill incident.

We have not received any complaints in relation to the Service Delivery Standards in this reporting period.

Policy Making Standards

We work to meet our ‘Policy Making’ standards through a number of measures, including:

- When policies or projects are established or reviewed and are subjected to an ‘Equality Impact Assessment’ (EIA) process, this includes an assessment of Welsh language implications, including opportunities to promote the Welsh language.
- New staff are provided with awareness-raising sessions to ensure they use the Equality/Welsh Language Impact Assessment process effectively.
- Consultation or research take opportunities to invite views on how we could promote use of the Welsh language. Since the introduction of the Standards this has taken place internally, with staff providing views on how we can promote the language.

Of note during 2021/22:

- We continued to refresh our approach to how we assess policies for impact, and this has included considering how we can better assess Welsh language implications across the team. A new impact assessment process is in development and will lead to refresher training for staff so that they fully understand what they can do to promote the Welsh language in their portfolio areas.
- We have not received any complaints in relation to the Policy Making Standards in this reporting period.

Operational Standards

We work to meet our ‘Operational’ standards through a number of measures, including:

- Members of staff are offered the opportunity to receive HR documents in Welsh or to conduct HR processes in Welsh. To date no members of staff have requested this facility.
- Internal Welsh language spellcheck facilities are available for Welsh speaker use.
- When we go out to advert for any post, we undergo a process to assess the Welsh language skills required for the post. The assessment outcomes are provided overleaf.
- Recruitment processes are offered bilingually.
- All new staff members that join the Commissioner’s Team are briefed on the Welsh Language Standards requirements and processes at induction.
- Refresher Welsh Language Standards compliance sessions are provided as necessary during the year.
- A Welsh in the Workplace Policy outlines how the Welsh language will be promoted amongst the Commissioner’s team.

Of note during 2021/22:

- We provided Welsh Language Inclusivity training sessions to new starters as far as possible given the Covid-19 restrictions.
- We supported mandatory online Welsh language training requirements for all staff.
- All staff have been encouraged to attain level 2 Welsh language skills. They have been supported to complete the course required.

- We encouraged attendance at 'Siop Siarad' sessions for all staff that wished to informally meet to begin or enhance their Welsh language speaking skills.
- We have undertaken a recruitment drive for volunteers for the Independent Custody Visiting Scheme. Welsh learners make up 22.7% of the volunteers which is an increase on 13.6% in 2020/2021.
- The Welsh in the Workplace Policy has been reviewed and is included in the induction packs for new staff.
- Two Policy Officers have been recruited to the Scrutiny, Assurance and Policy Team. One of these Policy Officers is responsible for overseeing Welsh Language work.

We have not received any complaints in relation to the Operational Standards in this reporting period.

Record Keeping Standards

We work to meet our 'Record Keeping' standards through a number of measures, including:

- We keep records of information relating to our Welsh Language Standards compliance notice. For example, we keep a record of the numbers of complaints in relation to our compliance, as well as a record of the number of Welsh speaking members of staff and the number of advertised vacancies assessed for Welsh language skills (and the assessment outcomes).

To meet the requirements of our Record Keeping Standards we provide the below information in relation to this reporting period:

Conclusion

The financial year 2021-22 has seen a gradual return to office working after an unprecedented period during the Covid 19 pandemic. The Commissioner's office continues to work in a hybrid manner and progression on the promotion of the Welsh language, both internally and to the public, has recommenced after the restrictions in place due to the pandemic.

The Welsh Language Standards are an important aspect of the team's equality and inclusion work. Two Policy Officers have been recruited to the Scrutiny, Assurance and Policy Team. One of these Policy Officers is responsible for overseeing Welsh Language work. We are working well to adhere to the standards as part of our usual business and we are committed to ensuring that language inclusivity is part of our culture. However, we are also aware that we may not always get things right and we welcome the views of our communities and staff about how we could improve.
